SHC sets aside magistrate's order to discharge two 'SRA men' in explosives case

By Sumair Abdullah

KARACHI: An anti-terrorism court (ATC) has remanded two suspects, said to be associated with the outlawed Sindhudesh Revolutionary Army (SRA), in judicial custody after the Sindh High Court (SHC) set aside a duty magistrate's Nov 2 order regarding their release.

The magistrate had discharged the two suspects — Sarmad Ali Raza and Ghani Aman Chandio —under Section 63 of the Criminal Procedure Code (CrPC) when the Counter-Terrorism Department (CTD) produced them to seek their physical remand in a case pertaining to possession of explosives.

On Tuesday, the CTD had challenged the order before the SHC and sought its reversal.

After hearing Prosecutor General Muntazar Mehdi, defence counsel Haq Nawaz Talpur, and others, a two-member bench, headed by acting Chief Justice Zafar Ahmed Rajput, set aside the impugned order and directed the CTD to produce the suspects before the administrative judge of the ATCs on same day.

In its short order, the SHC ruled: "For reasons to be recorded later, the impugned order dated 02.11.2025, passed under Section 63 CrPC, read with Section 167 CrPC in crime no 81 of 2025 under Sections 4/5 of the Explosive Substances Act, 1908 read with Section 7 of the Anti-Terrorism Act 1997, P.S CTD Sindh, Karachi, by the Judicial Magistrate-XVII…West is set aside."

The court further noted that, on the undertaking of the acting prosecutor general and the in-charge CTD, the suspects were directed to be produced before the ATC judge for obtaining their "judicial remand."

It also directed the jail authorities to produce the suspects before a medical officer and submit a report to the court within five days.

Later, the CTD produced the suspects before the ATC judge at the Judicial Complex inside the Central Prison Karachi, who sent them to prison on judicial remand.

On Nov 2, Duty Magistrate (West) Nisar Ahmed Chandio had discharged the suspects, directing the investigating officer to release the suspects forthwith upon furnishing surety bonds.

The magistrate noted that the discharge of the suspects would not amount to acquittal, and directed the IO to conduct a fair, impartial and expeditious investigation, and to submit the police report before the administrative judge of the ATC within the stipulated period.

Man shot dead

KARACHI: A man was shot dead in Musharraf Colony on Wednesday, police said.

The Moachko police said that Farooq Khan, 40, was on his way on a motorcycle to a truck stand when armed pillion riders opened fire on him and fled. He sustained a single bullet wound to his chest, which proved fatal. During the initial probe, it transpired that the victim had some personal enmity in his native town. There were allegations against him about his involvement in a murder case.—Staff Reporter by this arbitrary and discriminatory system.

They argued that low-income groups generally used motorcycles mainly because of a lack of mass transit system/public transport and it was impossible for a citizen earning Rs30,000 to Rs40,000 per moth to pay such heavy fines.

The petitioners submitted that the JI also filed resolutions in the Sindh Assembly and City Council against the e-challan system and asked the SHC to declare implementation of the impugned system without adequate infrastructure and ownership verification safeguards as illegal and unconstitutional.

They also pleaded to suspend operation and implementation of e-challan system and restrain respondents from issuing, processing or recovering of any penalty till the final disposal of the petition.

'Don't think much while painting'

KARACHI: A couple of informative workshops on Wednesday — by Swedish artist Domi Forest and Argentinian painter Adrian Bojko — generated deep interest in art students at the World Culture Festival 2025. Both engaged with the young boys and girls in an informal way and answered their questions.

Bojko had an interpreter with him because he doesn't speak English. The hall where he was illustrating his ideas — while painting in front of the students, members of the art faculty of the council art institute and other attendees — was full. One of the youngsters was Sanjna who told Dawn that Bojko first asked all of them to make a layer and then apply strokes on it.

Answering a question put to him by another young girl lamenting that she's feeling stressed out while painting because she felt her artwork wasn't looking good, he replied that she had to start over again. He said while involved in the act of painting, he doesn't think of the patterns which he's making; they come to him on their own.

A conversation, moderated by Nighat Chaudhary, on 'Storytelling beyond borders' had Charlene Campbell (USA), Wendy Jehlen (USA), Jonah Katz (France) and Bienco Matrix (Congo) on the list of panelists.

Ms Campbell after telling the moderator about her background in Chicago, spoke on how her group Ballet Beyond Borders works. She said before being part of an event (such as the World Culture Festival), their dancers, who come from different nationalities, have to write an essay, attend diplomacy conferences and are encouraged to highlight the indigenous dance of their country.

In the film screening segment, it was supposed to be an all-Pakistan day at the festival. The session was titled 'Emerging voices from Pakistan'. But a good foreign documentary was also shown. It was the Romanian film Catatenia by Corneliu Gheorghe Cirdeiu about a man who was deported from Northern Bukovnia.

The film that began the session was a Pakistani short Vachan helmed by Kuldeep Khatri. It focused on the plight of intersex people on both sides of the Indo-Pak border. It had a gloomy tone with constant emphasis on the non-acceptability in society of such individuals.

The other short films that were line up: Jal Ki Rani directed by Rizwan Abbas, Oblivion directed by Mustafa Tariq and Bahloo directed by Alizeh Ali Shah. —By Peerzada Salman included prayers for the peace and sovereignty of Pakistan.

Celebrating interfaith harmony

"The Sikh religion speaks of love for all and inclusion. Peace, brotherhood, and interfaith harmony are a big part of our religion. Baba Fariduddin Ganjshakar's poetry is included in the Guru Granth Sahib," said Sardar Ramesh.

"As we all know, the Sikh religion was founded by Guru Nanak. When the Golden Temple was being built in Amritsar, the fifth Guru of Sikhism, Guru Arjan Dev Ji, asked Hazrat Mian Mir, a Muslim Sufi saint, also known as a son of Lahore, to lay its foundation stone," he added, while stressing respect for all faiths in Sikhism. "We also believe in one Rab," he said.

The second day of the birth anniversary celebrations also saw a huge procession of six to seven thousand people walking from Lighthouse to Bolton Market and back late at night.

"We are grateful for the support we got from the Sindh government, the police and Rangers, who provided us with security as they do each year," concluded the Patron-in-Chief of the Pakistan Sikh Council.
